

Bead Society of Victoria
FOR ALL AUSTRALIAN BEADERS

The Bead Society of Victoria welcomes new members

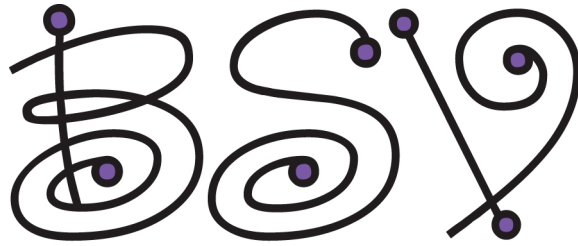

Come and be part of a group that delights in sharing knowledge and skills with each other.

The Society is a place to build new skills and most importantly new friends.

Age or level of skill is no barrier to enjoyment of the activities of the Society. We are a community of bead devotees who delight in the joy of sharing pride in each others triumphs and empathy in sharing problems to be solved in our creations.

Everyone can bead, everyone can be creative, everyone can benefit from the sharing of skills to the greater enjoyment of all participants.

So join The Bead Society of Victoria, a warm and friendly welcome awaits you, and the joy and satisfaction of unleashing your inner beader will add to your enjoyment of life. Creativity is everyone's right and gift.

The Bead Society of Victoria, Inc

The Bead Society of Victoria, Inc was founded in 1994 by a small group of bead fanatics. The Society aims to:

- Encourage bead enthusiasts, be they experienced or new to beads.
- Offer workshops to beaders from beginners to all levels of expertise through our workshop programme.
- Promote crafts people who are creative designers of bead work.
- Promote the exchange of information and bead suppliers' addresses among members to encourage members' knowledge of beads and bead work.
- Encourage those people new to bead collecting to learn about the fascinating 'world of beads'.
- Network with other bead enthusiasts.
- Promote historical research into beads and bead work.

Meetings are held at the Carnegie Library and Community Centre, 7 Shepparson Avenue, Carnegie (Melway Map 68 J4). It's a short walk from Carnegie Station. Meetings are on the 2nd Sunday of every month except January.

We also have a Geelong group who meet on the 1st Sunday of the month at the Geelong West Senior Citizens Club, Autumn Street, Geelong West (Melway Map 451 J2).

Members can bring along their beading, attend mini-workshops, hear informative speakers, solve beading and related problems and relax, bead and share with other members. Meetings run from 10am to 3pm and the format of each meeting is published in our quarterly newsletter 'Connect'. Members are asked to bring their own drinking mug to each meeting.

Membership benefits

- Quarterly Magazine 'Connect'
- Monthly Meetings
- Yearly Members' Exhibition
- Beading Workshops
- Starter Kit (needle, thread, pattern & beads)
- Members' Library
- Summer Bead Retreat
- International Teaching Programme
